GALLANT FIELDS patiently sat off the leader's flank in the two path for over a half mile, ranged up to that rival from midpoint on the turn, poked a head in front turning for home, responded positively when asked for a response, left the furlong grounds with a sizeable advantage then proceeded to increase the winning margin with authority, being flashed the whip from the right side during the final strides. KEEP ME INFORMED made a three wide around the turn, was unable to keep pace with the runaway winner, and had to settle for being second best. GRAND STRATEGY carved the early fractions towards the inside unchallenged for nearly three-quarters, offered brief resistance once confronted by the top one and tired steadily thereafter. SURREPTITIOUSLY saved ground throughout. LOQUACIOUS was pushed outward by his entry mate on the far turn, venturing into overland territory for a couple of jumps the second time around, worked his way back towards the inside after eluding that one, but had little left to offer at that point. STRATFORD HILL off a beat slow, rushed up to the middle of the pack under his courage, appeared extremely rank, stubbornly resisting the rating tactics being applied by the rider, swerved out suddenly at the half mile pole, brushing with and pushing his entry mate outward, acted more kindly for a short while upon reaching the far turn, began to drift out again, was kept under pressure to the quarter pole before being eased.
